Discover
the true taste
of Japan

Sushi-omakase dining Japanese cuisine has arrived at akya Chura Samui – courtesy of award-winning Japanese chef Goro San, who opened the celebrated Suikin restaurant in Bangkok. The cool, intimate 80-seat restaurant brings a new level of sophistication to the island's Japanese fusion dining scene with signature dishes such as tuna and kingfish sashimi and nigiri sushi and a dedicated Teppanyaki counter. At Suikin you will also discover the largest selection of Japanese sake on the island or the vibrant sake bar, located next to the main restaurant.
